

WSP AI CREATIVE LAB

Engineering Tomorrow | AI-Assisted Brand Film Concept for WSP

SERVICES & OPERATING MODEL

One shared engine turning any team's brief into brand-safe, presentation-ready visuals — in days, not weeks, with no added headcount.

SERVICES

Bids & Proposals

Concept visuals that make technical submissions visually competitive

Client Presentations

Visual narratives that turn engineering ideas into client-ready story

Project Visualization

Concept-to-reality renders before ground is broken

Leadership & Internal Comms

Campaign visuals and internal brand storytelling

OPERATING MODEL & INTAKE

01 Central Hub

2-3 specialists + regional "AI Champions" across business units

02 Standard Intake Form

Objective, audience, deadline, sensitivity one shared queue

03 SLA-Backed Turnaround

24-hr acknowledgment, 3-5 day first draft; fast-track lane for bids

WHY IT PAYS OFF Bids move faster with in-house visuals instead of agency turnaround; leadership content ships without ad-hoc freelance spend; every asset stays on-brand by design, not by luck.

GOVERNANCE, TOOLS & ROLLOUT

Quality control, commercial discipline, and a phased path to full adoption.

QUALITY & BRAND GOVERNANCE

- Mandatory brand-team review before external use
- Approved prompt & template library keeps output on-brand
- Two-tier sign-off: client-facing vs. internal content

RECOMMENDED TOOLS

Ideation & scripting

ChatGPT, Claude

Image generation

Midjourney, Adobe Firefly, Higgsfield

Video generation

Kling, Google Flow, Higgsfield

Post-production

Adobe Creative Cloud

ROLLOUT ROADMAP

PILOT 0-3 MO

One business unit, 2-3 flagship bids/campaigns; validate quality & turnaround

SCALE 3-6 MO

Open intake company-wide; publish template library and SLA

EMBED 6-12 MO

Standard step in bid & campaign workflows; quarterly cost/impact review

COST TRACKING & REPORTING

A shared subscription pool replaces per-designer licenses. Every request is logged against the project, tool, and time spent, rolling into a monthly dashboard: cost per asset, spend by business unit, and comparison against equivalent agency rates, reviewed with finance quarterly.
